

Dyscalculia Network: Privacy Notice

Who we are

The Dyscalculia Network helps parents and teachers find support for those struggling with all aspects of numeracy.

The network was founded in 2019 by Catherine Eadle of The Little Maths Room, who realised that she was helping hundreds of teachers, students and parents from all over the UK because there simply wasn't the information and resources available online for those dealing with Dyscalculia. Together with Rob Jennings (Emerson House Learning centre) and with the support of Jane Emerson, leading author and Dyscalculia specialist, the Dyscalculia Network was born. Together, Catherine and Rob have built a destination for those looking for help and advice on all aspects of maths difficulties.

How we use your personal information

We use your personal information, (what you tell us about yourself and what we learn by having you listed on our website) to deliver the products and services we have agreed to provide you with and to inform you of related products or services

Our Privacy Promise

We promise:

- To keep your data safe and private.

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will only do so in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality. When we collect or process your personal data we are regulated by the GENERAL DATA PROTECTION Regulations in the United Kingdom and we are responsible as 'controller' or 'processor' of that personal information for the purposes of those laws.

- Not to sell your data.

Use of cookies

We may use several different cookies on our website. These are used solely to remember your preferences on this site and for Google Analytics.

If you have any questions, or want more details about how we use your personal information, you can ask us. Please email info@dyscalculianetwork.com